

REMEMBERING ADÈLE DE LEEUW:

Hamilton Native Who Helped Pioneer Gender and Racial Equality in Literature

Thursday, May 18
6:00 - 7:00 p.m.

Join Dr. Cynthia A. Crane, University of Cincinnati English professor, for a presentation on Hamilton natives Adèle De Leeuw, a prolific author, and her sister, Cateau De Leeuw, an artist and illustrator. Crane, a relative of the De Leeuws, will discuss how Adèle's experiences in this region impacted her life and the groundbreaking nature of how her work emphasized strong women and addressed racial issues. Program presented by the Smith History Library and Cummins Room.

Ages 18 - up

Hamilton Lane Library
300 N. Third St. • 894-7158 • www.lanep.l.org